

Police crash toll up

THE death toll in road crashes involving police cars soared by more than a fifth last year, it is revealed today.

A record 44 people were killed in England and Wales - more than two and a half times the 17 recorded in 2000/01.

The deaths included 23 during police chases and six involving officers answering 999 calls.

Risk

"We are concerned about the increase," said Nick Hardwick of the Independent Police Complaints Commission. "When you dial 999 you want the police to get there quickly, but there is a degree of risk involved in that."

"We have to have an intelligent debate about what degree of risk is acceptable and in what circumstances."

A total of 106 people died last year in all incidents where the victims had contact with police officers - including deaths on and off the roads.

AGI WEDS

Singer's hush-hush bash

SEXPOT singer Christina Aguilera will wed today in a hush-hush family ceremony.

The 24-year-old star is famed for her Dirty image and raunchy outfits. But she'll be ditching that look for her "fairy-tale" big day.

She'll wear a traditional gown to marry record producer Jordan Bratman, 26, in the Napa Valley, California.

The happy couple were snapped in Los Angeles as they boarded Christina's private jet on their way to the wedding venue. They had tried to keep the location secret and it won't be a star-studded bash. Only family and close pals will be there.

■ by GARY NICKS

Christina previously said of her gown: "Don't expect the sort of skimpy stuff that hangs off my body when I'm on stage."

"I want white and traditional."

The world of stocks and shares. For kids.

The Child Trust Fund stakeholder account invests your child's money in the stock market. The money is spread across a range of different companies to reduce risk should some companies not do well. As your child approaches 18, the money is moved into more secure investments like cash and bonds. Over the last 40 years, shares have produced a better return than savings accounts in any 18-year period. So a stakeholder account could be a way for your child to benefit from the potential future growth in shares. However, although shares have performed well in the past, they may not do so in future and you could get back less than you put in. 10 WalkmanTM phones MUST BE WON

HERE'S your chance to grab another exclusive gadget – an amazing mobile phone that really can do it all.

Your Daily Star has teamed up with Sony Ericsson to give away 10 of their new W900i WalkmanTM phones worth £350.

And you won't be able to get your hands on them anywhere else until December 9!

The W900i is a versatile swivel-action Sony Ericsson 3G WalkmanTM phone. It has everything you need to enjoy your music on the move and it supports the latest and most advanced 3G network services. Its large, impressive screen makes mobile video viewing pure pleasure.

And the audio quality is what you would expect from an advanced digital music player.

Getting music to your phone is easy with the software supplied in its kit.

You can also enjoy high-speed mobile internet and live video streaming of movie trailers and news clips.

The phone also has exciting and colourful games, with sound and force feedback.

A 2 megapixel camera with auto focus lets you take pictures to be proud of and you can send them straight from your phone.

The W900i connects to your PC, the internet, other phones, with or without cables.

The Sony Ericsson e-shop is at: www.se-store.co.uk visit for more information.

A BLOKE walked into a pub and ordered a pint of bitter one evening. As he paid for it, he noticed a group of men standing in the corner, lifting a bicycle in the air.

"Good grief - what are they doing?" he asked.

The barman replied: "They're just holding a Raleigh."

D. DUNN, Birmingham.

A MAN went to see his boss and said: "You've got to give me a pay rise - three other companies are after me." The boss asked which ones and he replied: "The gas company, the electric company and the credit card company."

E. BAKER, Dagenham, Essex.

Joke by text... A WOMAN went into a second-hand car showroom and said: "That car you sold me is a wreck, but you said it was in mint condition." The boss said: "So it is - it's got a hole in the middle." CATTY

As a lone parent, I was horrified by the TV show Dads' Army: Inside Fathers 4 Justice (ITV1, November 7).

This show only seemed to concentrate on the few bad apples among the campaigning group Fathers 4 Justice.

Mine are still the breast Victoria

by TOM SAVAGE

SAUCY Rebecca Loos has fired a double blast at Victoria Beckham insisting: "I've got more front than you!"

The former PR girl, 27, was attending a star-studded ball in aid of the Red Cross in London.

And Rebecca, who has had her own 36DD boob job, made sure she wore a low-cut dress to deliver her message to 31-year-old Posh.

A pal of Rebecca's told the Daily Star: "There's been a lot in the news recently about Victoria's boob job."

"Becca was just reminding the lads that she's more than a match."

JOE MOTT'S AWARD WINNING HOT

Edited by CARL
STROUD

JUSTIN HAWKINS has ended his bitter feud with Glastonbury supremo Michael Eavis. The Darkness singer fell out with the farmer, 70, after calling him a "c*ck". But the pair have now kissed and made up. Justin, 30, said: "I've got no problem at all playing Glastonbury now."

SPEAKING OUT: James

Bourne to be riled...

JAMES Bourne, the intellectual powerhouse behind Son Of Dork, pokes fun at ex-Busted bandmate Matt Willis in a song on their new album. The lyrical genius, 22, claims he would have made a much better boyfriend for Willis' former partner Holly Davies, 31, than he did. On Holly... I'm The One, little Jimmy trills: "Holly I'm the one you should be dating. Seeing you with him is so frustrating. I taught him everything he knows. You fell for every single line I gave him. I know that I'm dumb. But Holly... I'm the one." But 22-year-old Matt's not the only former bandmate that gets a dressing down on Welcome To Loserville. The track Boyband also features a thinly-veiled dig at Fightstar frontman Charlie Simpson, 20, with the line: "There's the kid who blew it all, sat next to him at school, everyone thought he was cool... 'til he quit his job."

SMASH Hits Poll Winners
Party attendees can ditch the limos for more economical transport this Sunday - a Raleigh Chopper. The goodie-bags for the great and good heading for Wembley include a bike - and Nintendo Micros, Sony MP3 players, Mattel bling dolls and other more swish booty.

It's boys on film

DURAN Duran are in secret talks over their own multi-million dollar film. The Girls On Film outfit will meet industry executives soon. Keyboard player Nick Rhodes, 43, told me: "There's something very appealing about the idea. It's in the early stages of planning, but I'm sure it will be very funny."

Brave Kylie's Xmas cracker

FIRST SINGLE SINCE HER HEALTH BATTLE

KYLIE MINOGUE is to release her first new music since she was diagnosed with breast cancer - and it's out on Christmas Day.

The pop princess will issue a live version of Somewhere Over The Rainbow.

The 1939 classic from The Wizard Of Oz soundtrack was recorded earlier this year at London's Earl's Court and the download single will be backed by Kylie's rendition of Santa Baby.

Surprise

Kylie's UK Showgirl tour saw her play 23 sold-out nights across four cities in March, April and May this year, breaking records for ticket sales in each of them. The show was seen by 300,000 people in the UK.

Former soap star Kylie was diagnosed with breast cancer in May this year.

She cancelled the Far Eastern and Australian legs of her world tour to undergo chemotherapy sessions in Paris.

At the time she said, "Hopefully all will work out fine and I'll be back with you soon. I'm a fighter and I will beat this."

The release comes as a surprise to fans who expected the diminutive songbird to be silent until she's beaten her condition.

CHRISTMAS CHEER: Kylie's back

EXCLUSIVE

Sight will be available from kylie.com and all usual digital outlets.

Kylie will also release eight live tracks at the beginning of December.

Downloads of Better The Devil You Know, What Do I Have To Do?, Spinning Around, Slow Red Blooded Woman, I Believe In You, Can't Get You Out Of My Head and Love At First

Sight will be available from kylie.com and all usual digital outlets.

Kylie will be back in her native Australia this Christmas after French does allowed her to travel.

She and boyfriend Olivier Martinez, 39, will join little sister Dannii, 34, and parents Carol, 72, and Ron, 76, for a family Christmas in Melbourne.

EXCELLENT. Saucy Sarah Harding's pulled through last weekend's kidney scare and is back on tip-top form. The swell singer, 24, collapsed in the cd:uk studios on Saturday, but after a couple of days with her feet up she looks the picture of health and gave the modest folk of Milton Keynes a right eyeful.

WIN Blondie tickets - and loads more...

BLONDIE play the Royal Albert Hall on Wednesday. And PlayStation SingStar 80s also brings you Blondie Rocks - which promises to be the best after-show party in London for years.

I've got a pair of tickets to the gig, a pair of VIP tickets to the after-show party, a meet-and-greet with Debbie Harry, 60, and the band, a Slimline PS2 Console and a back catalogue of the SingStar games to give away.

Just text BLONDIE followed by your name and details to 888333, or call and leave your details on 0905 072 3651 and I'll pick a winner on Monday. Calls cost 75p per min from a BT landline (average call 90 seconds). Texts cost £1.50 plus your usual text tariff. Winners will be chosen at random from all entries received by midnight tomorrow.

CRavings: Rebecca is addicted to food because her brain won't tell her she's full

Picture: RED WILLIAMS

This girl is eating herself to death

by LAURA NEIL

FOOD addict schoolgirl Rebecca Medley is slowly eating herself to death.

And her desperate parents have been forced to put alarms and locks on their kitchen to keep their 12-year-old daughter away.

Rebecca - who already weighs 13 stone - can't stop eating because a rare medical condition, Prader-Willi syndrome (PWS), distorts the part of her brain that should tell her she is full.

She constantly feels hungry and goes hunting for food all the time.

Battle

Mum Allison, 37, said: "It's a constant battle. I've put locks on the kitchen cupboards, but I think she's worked out how to get in."

"If we are in a supermarket she will just suddenly put her fingers into food. She's also been caught taking food off the shelves."

Rebecca, of Romford, Essex, has to be driven to and from school because her excess weight means she can't walk very far. She was diagnosed with the incurable PWS at five months and is one of only 3,000 sufferers in the UK.

Now she is taking growth hormones, designed to give her a more normal future.

KICK-START: Cheltenham Gold Cup hero Kicking King (right) attempts to complete the first leg of a £1m bonus by winning the £150,000 betfair Chase at Haydock

KICKING FOR TOUCH

King's £1m booty bid

KICKING KING (2.20) takes his first step on the road to a £1million bonus at Haydock today.

Tom Taaffe's seven-year-old should land the betfair Chase, even though he lines up against seven top class rivals.

He's already beaten most of them in either the King George VI Chase or the Cheltenham Gold Cup.

And, at the tender age of seven, he should still have plenty of scope for improvement. Taaffe thinks so as he rates him stronger and better. He was outpointed by War Of Attrition at Punchestown on his warm-up run.

by TONY LEWIS

But the winner franked that form on Thursday and Barry Geraghty was anxious not to let him do too much. If he wins and repeats his victories in the King George and Gold Cup, Kicking King nets a mouth-watering £1million windfall

Flying Wrens is Daly star

THE Brass Monkeys have returned with a vengeance this week and the best way to enjoy the racing this afternoon is sat on a couch with a tumbler of brandy in one hand, and the Daily Star pull-out in t'other.

I'm going all in on the great KICKING KING (2.20) to runaway with the betfair Chase over three miles at Haydock and we can watch the drama unfold on BBC 1.

Tom Taaffe's Gold Cup hero was in need of the run on his seasonal bow at Punchestown last month when just beaten by War Of Attrition.

But the winner franked the form when accounting for Rathgar Beau at Clonmel on Thursday. I will never forget the way this son of Old Vic routed the King George field at Kempton last Boxing Day.

And despite an interrupted preparation he still had the class to score at Cheltenham in March.

The seven-year-old followed up with a superb display in the Guinness Gold Cup at Punchestown a month later.

Kicking King is only just approaching his physical peak and I will be stunned if he is beaten with his recent run under his belt.

Capable

One of my moles has sent an encrypted message down the wire telling me THREE WRENS (2.10) will fly home in the Bet Direct Fillies' Handicap over a mile at Lingfield.

Declan Daly may not be a well known name outside HQ, but make no mistake. Sir Michael Stoute's former assistant is a very capable trainer.

On her last start, she was second to Pure Imagination in a 17-runner handicap at Nottingham off a perch of 73.

Before that, she landed a similar event at the same track off a mark of 66. Three Wrens has only had four runs and is open to ample improvement.

Racing off a rating of 76 and with Kieren Fallon in the plate, this progressive lady looks a good thing.

I will be laying Simple Exchange in the 14-runner Listed Churchill Stakes (3.15). The Irish

Mark
Winstanley

raider has never been on the surface. It is drawn adjacent the car park in stall 13, and jockey Pat Smullen has little experience of riding this tricky track.

My idea of the winner is ZAYN ZEN, who trounced 11 rivals in a Listed contest in late October over a mile.

A winner over this trip at Leicester, Michael Jarvis' filly has ticks in all the right boxes.

Now that the horny singer has been thrown off the X-Factor, the best way to get some excitement on a Saturday night is to have a fire-up at Wolverhampton.

Kieren Fallon has been riding most of Sir Michael Stoute's horses at the track, so the fact he jumps off Duty to ride Jamie Osborne-trained improver BULL MARKET (8.30) is a strong tip in itself.

THAT'S MY

THISTHATANDTOTHER can give Paul Nicholls a second successive victory in today's Peterborough Chase at Huntingdon.

Paul took the prize last year with Le Roi Miguel who runs this afternoon.

But significantly Ruby Walsh, successful on him last year, partners Thisthatandtother (3.00 C4). He is a horse who I know well.

Last year, at Cheltenham, he beat me when I rode Fondmort.

Despite what people are saying, Paul's horses are running well and he has always rated this fella.

Henrietta Knight, who has a fantastic record in this event winning the prize four times with Edredon Bleu and twice with Best Mate, has the danger with Impek.

He bounced back to form with a front-running display at Aintree.

But I think he was allowed to do things his own way on that occasion.

It will be a different story at Huntingdon.

In the first televised event at Huntingdon, I expect my governor, Nicky Henderson, to take the prize with REACHING OUT (2.30).

Enjoyed

He is a course and distance winner. He will like today's conditions and can continue the tremendous run of success enjoyed by the Henderson runners.

Nicky has a good chance with All Star in the Tote Pool Handicap Hurdle.

But the Irish trained NEWTON DANCER (3.30) looks a well-handicapped horse.

At Haydock, the Cheltenham Gold Cup has arrived early with an excellent field lining up for the betfair Chase.

This looks an ideal opportunity for KICKING KING (2.20 BBC1) to get his career back on track.

Last year's Gold Cup winner needed his run at Punchestown last month, when second to War Of Attrition.

That form looks good as War Of Attrition won at Clonmel on Thursday when he beat the smart Rathgar Beau in a driving finish. I believe this to be a two-horse affair with Ollie Magern being the danger. He looked good when successful at Wetherby last month.

He is a solid stayer and jumps well. Haydock should suit him.

But at this stage, Kicking King is a horse they again have to beat. He can his boost Cheltenham Gold Cup claims.

Highly

Earlier at Haydock, ECHO POINT (1.20) can remain unbeaten by gaining a third success.

He looks a progressive horse and I know his rider, Tony Dobbin, rates him highly.

The Tommy Stack-trained Wanago looks the danger. Tommy has a good

This is Paul's double hope

LOOK FOR MY BUMPER RETURN

FOLLOWING my fall at Market Rasen in July, when I broke a bone in my neck I have now been given the all clear to resume race riding.

I will be in action on Monday and I can't wait.

My first ride will be Hue And Cry for the governor, Nicky Henderson, in a bumper at Ludlow.

It's such a relief and it will now be all systems go.

There is so much to look forward to and our horses are running so well - let's hope it continues. I have been work-riding for Nicky and got the all-clear to resume riding when I saw specialist Jeremy Fairbanks on Monday.

I couldn't have been more pleased with the way things have gone this week.

Raring

I feel fine. I honestly thought I would be a bit apprehensive or rusty. But there was not a bit of it.

Now I am just raring to go once again."

I had always aimed to be ready for the Hennessy Cognac Gold Cup Chase at Newbury next Saturday.

And that goal looks like being achieved with stable star Trabalgón entered for the big one. Trabalgón has bypassed today's betfair Chase at Haydock to wait for the Hennessy.

He's a class act and won with yours truly in the saddle at the Cheltenham Festival in March, beating Comply Or Die by three lengths.

He has looked good in work at home and will take some beating.

month. He was a top novice last season.

MIKO DE BEACHENE (2.05) was an impressive winner last time out and can follow up in the Blue Square Handicap Hurdle.

At Aintree tomorrow there is a cracking line-up for the Becher Handicap Chase.

Unique

This looks an ideal opportunity for the talented Nina Carberry to show us again her natural ability over the Grand National fences when she partners FOREST GUNNER (2.50 BBC2).

Forest Gunner has a tremendous record over these unique fences and ran a blinder when fifth in last season's Grand National.

Cregg House, who won over these fences in the Topham Chase last season, will be the threat.

In the other contest over the National course, the Grand Sefton Chase, BETTER DAYS (1.40) looks the answer.

Better Days has had a recent run over hurdles at Wetherby when the nine-year-old was a creditable third behind Mister Arjay. He will be better for that outing and will take some stopping.

The progressive THE MARKET MAN (2.15) can gain more success over hurdles before he switches to fences.

next March, Wylie looks to have an extra strong hand to play.

No Refuge was cut to 8-1 for the Festival showpiece with Ladbrokes, though Coral were more impressed and go 6-1.

Winning jockey Graham Lee was impressed. "I would not have been surprised if I had got beaten today," he said. "In the main, he jumped very well, though he made one mistake down the back. I am happy with that." Wylie paid tribute to trainer Howard Johnson for producing him in such good form on his seasonal reappearance.

"Howard is a great trainer," he said, adding that Inglis Drever would again match strides with last year's World Hurdle second Baracouda at Newbury next Saturday.

Oscar Park romped home in the opener under Tom Doyle. Trainer Colin Tinkler said: "He jumped better today, that was the main thing."

NO REFUGE stamped himself as the ideal back-up for last winner's Order of Merit winner Inglis Drever when scoring at Windsor yesterday.

Graham Wylie's Royal & Sun Alliance winner returned to tip-top form with a two lengths victory over French raider Blue Canyon in the Blue Square Ascot Hurdle.

With Inglis Drever already established as the sponsors' 9-4 favourite for the Ladbroke World Hurdle at Cheltenham

5 DVDs up for grabs

John McCririck, the crazy face of British Horse Racing for over 20 years and self-professed punter's friend, presents a look at the hilarious side of horse racing in his DVD "Racing Out Of Control," which is released on Monday.

And your racing-mad Daily Star has linked up with the distributors Paramount Home Entertainment to bring you a prize you can't afford miss.

Not only are we giving away five DVDs but also a day at the races for two lucky readers which they'll remember for a long time.

The day involves a tour of Newmarket, including an afternoon tour of the National Stud followed by an evening at the races with live music by a top group or artist afterwards.

And the DVD is something you won't want to miss either as John tells of near misses to non-runners, career-ending failures to the greatest screw-ups of all time. He provides amusing anecdotes and background commentary on them all.

His infamous appearance as an especially rebellious housemate in Celebrity Big Brother has made this deerstalker-clad, tic-tac-toe man a household name. Big Mac, as his fans call him, has been involved in racing for over 20 years as everything from a reporter for Sporting Life to an illegal bookmaker before coming to TV racing coverage as the face of Channel 4's Saturday racing show since it began airing.

John's eccentricities, such as his total refusal to use a computer and encyclopaedic knowledge of the history of horse racing, has radically changed racing's TV image in the last 10 years.

In his usual madcap style, John makes the funniest moments of horse racing truly hilarious. Don't miss this DVD experience that's as extreme and outrageous as John himself - it's also an ideal gift for that hard-to-buy-for Dad, brother or racing-mad friend!

So to win this great prize of a day's racing or one of the DVD's just answer the following easy question.

What is John McCririck's nickname?

- 1: Big Mac
- 2: Little John
- 3: Sherlock Holmes

Send your answers to John McCririck competition, Daily Star Racing Desk, Broughton Printers, Oliver's Place, Fulwood, Preston PR2 9WT. on or before noon Saturday November 26.

Or you could phone:
0905 0723650

OR Text PUNT followed by your answer, name and address and daytime telephone number to 88833.

Calls cost 75p per minute from a BT landline (Ave Call length 90 secs). Texts cost £1.50 plus your usual text tariff.

Winners will be selected at random from all entries received.

Note: JOHN MCCRICK'S RACING OUT OF CONTROL is available to buy on DVD from 21st November 2005 from Paramount Home Entertainment (RRP £15.99)
